

TOUR HOSPITAL SHIP
 A tour of the USS Haven, hospital ship, was an exciting experience for Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Grubbs and Dr. and Mrs. Howard Wood last Saturday evening. The tour was held in conjunction with the American Academy of General Practice meeting held at the Officers' club at Terminal Island. After the tour, dinner was served, followed by movies and speakers.

BURSTING WITH PRIDE . . . are these prize winning Woman's club chairmen posing with their president and displaying their awards won at the first Marina District convention held in Santa Monica last Friday. In the "over 100" membership category the Torrance club took five of the eight awards given. These delighted club members are (from left) Mrs. W. C. Boswell, drama chairman; Mrs. Carl Steele, scholarship; Mrs. R. J. Triplitt, press; Mrs.

McCoy, president; Mrs. J. Parke Montague, membership, and Mrs. John Thuss, garden and conservation. Certificates were also presented to Mrs. McCoy and Mrs. D. J. Quinn-Livan, federation-extension chairman, for their attendance at district meetings. For the first time, Torrance club will be in state competition with its press book at Coronado in late April. (Herald Photo)

Woman's Club Awarded Honors

Torrance Woman's club brought home five of the eight awards presented at the first Marina district convention held at the Mira Mar Hotel in Santa Monica on Friday, April 5. Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, club president, accepted the awards from the various district chairmen. The local club competed in the "over 100" membership category. The five district awards captured by Torrance were: drama, scholarship, press, membership and conservation. Mrs. W. C. Boswell is drama chairman of the local club; Mrs. Carl Steele, chairman of scholarship; Mrs. R. J. Triplitt, press chairman; Mrs. J. Parke Montague, membership, and Mrs. John Thuss, garden section chairman. Presenting the awards were Mrs. Janet Dee, Marina district drama chairman; Mrs. C. E. Weddle, district scholarship chairman; Mrs. Charles Blek, district press chairman; Mrs. William Kell, district conservation chairman, and Mrs. James Gorham, district extension. Other recognitions were given to the club president, Mrs. McCoy, for her 100 per cent attendance at district board meetings and another for her 100 per cent attendance.

(Continued on Page 12)

MR. & MRS. JOHN MELVILLE
 . . . To Direct AFS Program

John Melvilles To Head AFS Chapter

Mr. and Mrs. John Melville, 1512 El Prado Ave., will serve in the capacity of chairmen for the Torrance chapter of the American International Field Service during the coming year. The new chairmen were elected at a meeting of the AFS chapter at the home of Mrs. Grover Van Deventer. Under the field service program foreign students are brought here to attend high school and to reside with local families. Also under the program, local students are sent to the foreign countries to study, thereby bringing about international understanding.

Entertain Husbands at Dinner Party

Torrance Lioness club entertained their husbands at a progressive dinner party last Saturday evening. The pre-dinner cocktails were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Robinson. The group moved on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt for the shrimp cocktails and salads were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Moulton. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McTee were hosts for the entree and dessert was served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Don Moshas. A variety of games were played and guests enjoyed swimming in the Moshas pool. In the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Boren, Henry Burke, Paul Diamond, A. F. R. Ewalt, Mott Farrell, Warren Hamilton, Dale Harter, W. B. Hickey, Milton Isbell, William King, James Kreuger, A. B. McTee, Don Moshas, Ruel Moulton, Kenneth Olson, H. J. Osborne, Frank Pagac, Pete Radsich, John Ritchie, Abe Robinson, Jack Smith, Van Wagner, Frank Jacobowski. The Lioness club's next meeting is scheduled April 18.

Auxiliary Hears Talk

Torrance Memorial Hospital Longy held its regular meeting Tuesday noon at the Smith Brothers' Fish Shanty. President Mrs. John W. Beaman presided over the business meeting. Jeanne Barnhart of the Barnhart Studios gave a talk on modeling and the spring fashions, according to Mrs. W. C. Boswell, publicity chairman. Mrs. Robert S. Steeth, Jr. was in charge of the program. The sewing group will be meeting in the home of Mrs. E. G. Buff, 728 S. Catalina, at 10 a.m. Monday, April 29.

Buffet Dinner

Pink carnations and pink candles on a green table cloth created a lovely spring atmosphere for the neighborhood party given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Leech, 905 Tenth Ave. After the buffet dinner was served, an evening of dancing followed in the den. Guests enjoying the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. Don Harp, Robert Kerber, Mark Salcido, Ernest Arveson, Gene Nourse and John Elder.

JUDY NASH HOME

Judy Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy M. Nash, 27147 Eastvale Rd., will spend the spring vacation with her parents.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Calvin F. Blakley, 2516 Sierra St., entertained for her bridge club recently. She had an extra table for her special guests. They were Mmes. Dean Sears, Paul Loranger, George B. Rogers, and Mrs. Blakley's aunts, Mrs. George Cree and Edward Casey.

The regular members are Mmes. J. Parke Montague, Burton Easley, Philip Halloran, Gerald Eastham, William E. Grubbs, Robert Triplitt, Walter Levy, Phyllis Klink and the hostess, Mrs. Easley will be the hostess for the next meeting.

Puls-Grant Engagement

An announcement of interest to friends here is being made by Mrs. Gertrude Puls of Oakhurst, of the engagement of her daughter, Edith, to Gary Edward Grant of Manhattan Beach.

The wedding will take place April 26 at the Wayfare's Chapel in Portuguese Bend. Mrs. Puls and her daughter formerly lived in the Hollywood Riviera.

GALA EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Linhart and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nash spent a gala evening recently in the city. They had dinner at the Hollywood Brown Derby and then attended Tennessee Williams' play "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at the Huntington-Hartford Theatre.

IN SAN CLEMENTE

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman and sons, Bill and Bob accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Oswald of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Petralia of Rosemead spent a three day weekend at San Clemente.

MISS MARY JOYCE GAHAN
 . . . Summer Bride

Two Local Teachers Plan Wedding for Early Summer

Wedding bells will ring in early summer for Miss Mary Joyce Gahan of Redondo Beach and James Guialtieri of Hermosa Beach. The engagement and wedding plans are being announced today by the bride-elect's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Reese, of 20933 LaSalle Ave. Family and friends were told the news at a champagne reception at the home of Mrs. Robert Rhodes and her son, Dean Rhodes.

The definite date for the wedding will be announced later. The couple will spend a three-month honeymoon at Mammoth Lake, returning here in the fall to make their home. Miss Gahan is a graduate of Redondo High School and El Camino college. She is a primary teacher at the Arlington school in Torrance.

Mr. Guialtieri, a native of San Francisco, is the son of S. Guialtieri. He was graduated from San Jose State college, received his master's degree from Stanford, and is an instructor at El Camino college.

MISS DELORES KYLLINGSTAD
 . . . Future Bride

Delores Kyllingstad to Marry Carlton Newcomb

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kyllingstad, 1665 W. 252nd St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Delores, to Carlton Newcomb, son of Mrs. Clarence Newcomb of Deming, N.M., and Clarence Newcomb, 3305 Danaha St., Torrance.

The wedding will be solemnized March 2, 1958, at the Western Ave. Baptist Church. The bride-elect's brother, the Rev. Wayne Kyllingstad, will officiate at the marriage. Miss Kyllingstad is a senior at Narbonne High school. The future bridegroom was graduated from Deming High school and attended Northrop Aviation Institute. He is now employed as a draftsman for the City of Torrance.

MISS JEANNE JESSOME
 . . . Makes Wedding Plans

Jeanne Frances Jessome to Wed Easterner Here Aug. 3

August 3 has been selected by Miss Jeanne Frances Jessome and Donald Dennis Cameron as their wedding date. The marriage will take place at the Nativity Catholic Church here.

The engagement and wedding plans are being disclosed today by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jessome, 1218 Cota Ave. Miss Jessome was graduated from St. Joseph's Academy in Orange and is now employed in the accounting department of the Pacific Telephone Co.

Mr. Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Cameron of Everett, Mass., was educated in the east. He is now serving with the United States Navy, stationed in Rhode Island. He will have completed his tour of duty in July.

CAN YOU TELL? . . . that first finger on her little right hand is still a bit "gooey" because Cherie had just sampled the icing on that carousel birthday cake. She takes on a wistful smile for her favorite cameraman, her father, Kenneth McVey. Cherie was the center of attraction at a family party at her home on March 31 when her second birthday was celebrated. Julienne and David McVey helped their little sister open her birthday gifts.

Circus Party For Cherie

Cherlyne Rae McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 3825 W. 176th St., celebrated her second birthday on Sunday, March 31, with a family party.

A circus theme was carried out with a "merry-go-round" cake as the main attraction. Cherie also previewed her Easter frock made of rose-petal nylon with a pleated skirt and pleated circular collar.

Julienne and David McVey helped their younger sister unwrap her birthday gifts. The most fascinating packages, of course, were from Cherie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McVey and Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, all of Tucson, Ariz.